Mayor-The Issues. ST. LOUIS, April 1 .- One of the hardestfought municipal campaigns in the history of St. Louis closed to-night with mass meetings held in every part of the city by most of the six parties having tickets in the field. The tickets to be voted for tomorrow are the Democratic, Republican, Good Government, Public Ownership, Socialist-Democratic and Socialist-Labor. Each one has a full list of candidates for municipal officers. Victory is especially desirable at this time, because the successful candidate will hold office during the world's fair to be NORWALK-Democrats elected a mayor | held here in 1903, in commemoration of the great scramble has been made to secure the labor vote, which will be heavy and considerably divided. An important factor in the contest is the Public Ownership ticket, the leaders of which party are putting forth every effort to win on the promise of municipal ownership of public and transportation franchises. Indiana Fertilizer Law.

H. A. Huston, State chemist, is sending out a circular calling attention to the new fertilizer law of Indiana, or rather to the amendments made to this law by the last Legislature. The bill provides that manufacturers must register their goods, stating the minimum quantity of each fertilize: ingredient. The label or tag of the State chemist showing this minimum guarantee must be attached to every package of ferflizer sold, and also to every sample bottle used in making sales. The State chemist warns purchasers that they should refuse to receive any package of fertilizer which does not bear the legal label with the signature of the State chemist.
